Dear

I am pleased to invite you to Platform//2025, Scale Computing's flagship event for IT Professionals, Partners, and Industry Leaders, from May 12th to 15th, 2025, in Las Vegas, NV, USA. The Scale Computing Marketing and Sales teams will host you during your stay.

During this visit, you will learn about Scale Computing technology, network with industry professionals, attend educational sessions, meet with complimentary technology vendors, and more. You will also have the opportunity to leave with a Scale Computing Professional Certification.

Please understand that during your stay in the United States, you are financially responsible for all medical insurance and medical expenses, including emergency expenses, lodging, food & beverage, transportation, incidentals, etc. This invitation does not constitute any financial obligation on the part of Scale Computing.

We look forward to seeing you in Las Vegas!

Sincerely,
